Table notes
†The Cems programme was ranked number two in the Masters in Management 2012 rankings, but it has not been included in the European Business Schools 2012 ranking as it is a programme and not a school.
‡# Data are provided for information only. Most recently published data are given.
□# Figure in brackets refers to data from second programme for schools with more than one programme ranked.
□□# School was not included in the published 2011 ranking for this survey.
□□□# School participated in this ranking on the basis of a joint programme. Underlying score based on proportion of total score.
- □□□# School participated with more than one programme in this ranking. Underlying score based on combined score.
□□□□□ The line breaks denote the pattern of clustering among the schools. Around 180 points separate IE Business School at the top, from the school ranked number 80. The top 12 business schools from IE to University of Oxford: Saïd, form the top group.
□□□ The second group is headed by Warwick Business School, about 85 points above Porto Business School at the bottom of this group. The third group is headed by Louvain School of Management.
