Table notes

The Cems programme was ranked number fourth in the Masters in Management 2015 rankings, but it has not been included in the European Business Schools 2015 ranking as it is a programme and not a school.

Figure in brackets refers to data from second programme for schools with more than one programme ranked †School was not included in the published 2015 ranking for this survey. School participated in this ranking on the basis of a joint programme only. Underlying score based on proportion of total score. Scho of participated with more than one programme in this ranking. Underlying score based on combined scores

The line breaks denote the pattern of clustering among the schools. Around 195 points separate London Business School at the top from the school ranked number 85. The top 11 business schools from LBS and ESCP Europe, form the top gro up. The second group is headed by Imperial College Business School, about 100 points above Sabanci University School of Management at the bottom of this group. The third group is headed by University of Cologne, Fa culty of Management.
