

Table with columns: Rank in 2018, Rank in 2017, 3 year average rank, School name, Country, Audit year, Salary today (US$), Weighted salary (US$), Salary percentage increase, Value for money rank, Career progress rank, Aims achieved (%), Careers service rank, Employed at three months (%), Alumni recommend rank, Female faculty (%), Female students (%), Women on board (%), International faculty (%), International students (%), International board (%), International mobility rank, International course experience rank, Languages, Faculty with doctorates (%), PhD graduates No., FT research rank.

Although the headline ranking figures show changes in the data year to year, the pattern of clustering among the schools is equally significant. Some 195 points separate the top programme, Stanford, from the school ranked number 100. The top 14 participants, down to HKUST Business School, form the top group of MBA providers. The second group, headed by Yale School of Management, spans schools ranked 15 to 44. Differences between schools are relatively small within this group. The 48 Schools within the third group headed by University of Virginia: Jones are similarly close together. The remaining 9 schools headed by University of Texas at Dallas: Jindal make up the fourth group.