

European Business Schools Ranking 2014

Key to the 2014 rankings

Weights for ranking criteria are shown in brackets as a percentage.

MBA (25):

European Rank 2014: position among European schools within the FT Global MBA 2014 ranking.

Salary today $: average alumni salary three years after graduation US$ by purchasing power parity (PPP). Includes weighted data from the current and two previous years, where available.

Salary increase: percentage increase in average alumni salary pre-MBA to today, three years after graduation. Includes weighted data from the current and two previous years, where available.

EMBA (25):

European Rank 2014: position among European schools within the FT Executive MBA 2014 ranking.

Salary today $: average alumni salary three years after graduation US$ PPP. Includes weighted data from the current and two previous years, where available.

Salary increase: percentage increase in average alumni salary pre-EMBA to today, three years after graduation. Includes weighted data from the current and two previous years, where available.

Masters in Management (25):

European Rank 2014: position among European schools within the FT Masters in Management 2014 ranking.

Salary today $: average alumni salary three years after graduation US$ PPP. Includes weighted data from the current and two previous years, where available.

Executive Education

Open programmes: European Rank 2014 (12.5): position among European schools within the FT Executive Education ranking of open-enrolment programmes in 2014.

Custom programmes: European Rank 2014 (12.5): position among European schools within the FT Executive Education ranking of customised programmes in 2014.

Other information

Female faculty: percentage of female faculty.

International faculty: percentage of faculty whose citizenship differs from their country of employment.

Faculty with doctorates: percentage of full-time faculty with a doctoral degree.