

Top MBAs for entrepreneurship Ranking 2016

Key to the table

Weights for the different criteria as a percentage are shown in brackets

Started company (20): Percentage of MBA graduates who started a company;

Female entrepreneurs (5): Percentage of female MBA graduates who started a company;

Equity (10): Percentage of entrepreneurs who raised at least a third their equity via private investors, rather than own savings and family and friends;

Still operating (10): Percentage of companies started in 2014 or earlier, and are still operating at the end of 2015;

Main source of income (5): Percentage of entrepreneurs for whom their company is the main source of income;

Motivation (10): the extent to which the skills gained during the MBA encouraged the entrepreneurs to start a company;

School - start (5): the extent to which the business school helped start the company;

School - finance (10): the extent to which the business school helped secure financing;

School - recruit (5): the extent to which the business school helped recruit key staff;

Alumni network - start (5): the extent to which the alumni network helped start the company;

Alumni network - finance (10): the extent to which the alumni network helped secure financing;

Alumni network - recruit (5): the extent to which the alumni network helped recruit key staff;